Alleged Bank Wrecker Kept to Himself on Voyage Over on Olympic.

Henry Segel, who is under fourteen indictments for wrecking the

MY TIRED FEET ACHED FOR "TIZ"

Let your sore, swollen, sweaty feet spread out in a bath of "TIZ."

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-cramped, aching, burning, corn-pestered, blister-tortured feet of yours in a "TIZ" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "TIZ" bath. When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "TIZ". It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions. There's nothing like "TIZ". It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous excretions which puff up your feet and cause foot torture. Get a 25-cent box of "TIZ" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.

Segel stores and banks, came home this morning on the White Star steamship Olympic. Mr. Segel went away on the Olympic on her last voyage, but his going away was no quiet and unobtrusive that no one knew anything of his presence on board until late on the afternoon of the sailing day. As soon as he appeared on deck when the shores of New York were in the distance he was recognized and the wireless was soon spelling his name for the benefit of his creditors and District Attorney Whitman back in Manhattan.

Segel tried to avoid the reporters and when they cornered him took refuge in the plea of nothing to say. He was the littlest man on the ship, and he could not hide his identity even at that. On the trip over he did not associate very freely with the rest of the passengers and nobody was particularly seeking his society. He grinned when questioned and said that he had been much benefited by the voyage. He looked badly about the eyes and there seemed to be new lines on his face.

Then the photographers swooped down upon him and aimed their cameras at him. "Are you going to shoot me?" he asked with a feeble attempt at humor. "Now, I can lick you," he added, shaking his fist in mock anger at a photographer in the group who was smaller than himself.

The cameras clicked and he was "taken." Then he tried to get away and refused to say anything more. He repeated his answer that he had nothing to say. He carried a bag bigger than himself going off the gangplank. He was not very long in having his baggage passed by the inspectors and was off on his way in the quickest time on record.

"ZIEGFELD FOLLIES, 1914." Opened in Atlantic City Previous to New York Run.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 27.—"Ziegfeld Follies," series of 1914, was produced here last night at the Apollo Theatre in the presence of the largest audience ever assembled in that play house. The newest "Follies," which is in two acts and eighteen elaborate scenes, has been staged under the personal direction of F. Ziegfeld Jr. Leon Errol, who for several seasons has been identified with the institution as a comedian and dancer, staged the ensemble numbers. George V. Hobeart is credited with the book and lyrics. Eugene Buck supplied the additional lyrics. The chorus is without doubt the handsomest and cleverest ever exhibited in Atlantic City. Following a five-night engagement here the piece will be taken to New York, opening at the New Amsterdam Theatre next Monday evening.

TO HOLDERS OF NOTES OF THE BOSTON AND MAINE RAILROAD:

The holders of a very large majority of the $27,000,000 notes due June 2, 1914, have agreed to one or the other of the alternative propositions for extension contained in the Company's circular of May 15, 1914, and the Company's offer has been so universally approved that IT HAS BEEN DETERMINED TO EXTEND UNTIL THE CLOSE OF BUSINESS FRIDAY, MAY 29, 1914, THE TIME WITHIN WHICH NOTEHOLDERS MAY DEPOSIT WITH THE OLD COLONY TRUST COMPANY, 17 COURT STREET, BOSTON, their assets either to extend their notes for nine months, with interest discounted at 6 per cent. per annum, or to extend 60 per cent. thereof on the terms just mentioned, and receive in exchange for the remaining 40 per cent., at 100 and accrued interest, Five-Year 5 per cent. Notes of the Maine Railway Companies due April 1, 1919.

Attention is called to the statements in the Company's circular of May 15, 1914, that it is necessary that substantially all Boston and Maine notes now outstanding, amounting to $27,000,000, must be extended or exchanged for new notes.

Only the assent of the Noteholders will save the Company from a receivership. By order of the Finance Committee of the Board of Directors,

MORRIS McDONALD, President.

Boston, Mass., May 25, 1914.
